Our escape game

Pair _____

Learners _____ and _____

Your idea first. The AI comes after. Each of you writes at least one line. A phrase or a sketch is enough.

PROMPT Lines marked like this go into the starting prompt.

Game name
If you like.

Our world PROMPT
One place with one strange detail.

Who will play it?

Colours and mood PROMPT
Two or three colours. How should it feel?

Things in the room
4 to 6 things you can click.

The locked exit
A thing from your world that opens.

The secret code PROMPT
3 numbers or one word.

The clue PROMPT
Where does it hide? What does the player read there?

The hint
Point to the clue. Don't give the code.

The wrong-code message
What does the game say?

The ending PROMPT
What happens when someone escapes?

Sketch your room. Mark the exit and where the clue hides.

Check: can a new player find the clue and work out the code in about a minute?
